country, as published an another column. No good and quiet citizen can but deprecate the present tendency of events, or fail to seek, by all henorable means, to avert violence and bloodshed, and it is due to humanity and our civilization, to say thing of our christianity, that pacificatory neasures be first brought to bear. If these fail, our skirts will then be clear of what follows. Another Infamous Outrage.

We learn that a young man, (white) unoffend ng and quiet, living in the Mt. Zion neighbor heed, was dragged from his house a few nights since, and cruelly and outrageously treated by negroes. No questions were asked him, and they would answer none of his enquirles as to the alleged provocation for the terrible outrage. Who can say that the patient forbearance of our people has not been long?

Purther of the Lynchburg Desperadoes. The same night Mr. Hosea Wilson's barn was ournt, at his home place, as detailed in our last saue, attempt was made, by the same band of rmed and undisguised ruffians, to burn his other place, situated about one mile and a quarter from Lynchburg depot. This place is cocupied and managed by BRYANT WRIGHT, a worthy and in dustrious colored man. WRIGHT was aroused by some noise on the premises, about the time the accordiaries were in the act of applying the torch, and running out, averted the destruction of the fruits of his year of labor. He had an interest of one halfin the crop that had been housed, and we learn, bad managed the farm faithfully and successfully. As before said, he is a worthy and industrious colored man, of conservative views and feelings, but had done nothing to excite sgainst him the devilish spirit which sought the perpetration of so fiendish an outsage.

More Terrible Outrages.

We announce, with more than ordinary feeling, that the baru and stables of Mrs. A. A. Mc-KAIN, with her whole crop of corn, peas, rice, folder, &c., were destroyed by incendiaries, on Saturday night last. Also all the provisions made the present year by Mr. DRAN, and one or two other white tenants of her place, stowed in the same buildings, were burned. All the buildings within the enclosure of the barn yard were burned to the ground.

A few nights provious to the burning, the house occupied by Mr. DEAR and his family was fired into with a double barrel piece, the shot penetrating through to the inside. On the night the burning, the discharge of one gun, appa rently at the barn and stables, aroused Mr. DEAN from his bed, and going out he found the flames Iteady doing the work of destruction. He was able only to remove the horses and mules from he stable. The loss of provisions was complete

A Body and Mind Disease.

Such a dyspepsia. The stomach and the brain are too intimately allied for the one to suffer without the other, so that dyspepsis and despondency are inseparable. It may be added, too, that irritation of the stomach is almost invariably accompanied by irratition of the temper.

The invigorating and tranquillising operation or Hostetter's Bitters is most powerfully developed in cases of indigostion. The first effect of this agreeable tonic is comforting and encouraging. A mild glow pervades the system, the chronic uncasiness in the region of the stomach is lessoned, and the nervous restlessness which characterizes the disease is abated. This improvement is not transient. It is not succeeded by the return of the old symptons with superadded force, as is always the case when unmedicated stimulants are given for the complaint. Arrest that terrible Catarrh, and thus avoid a consumptive's grave by using Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. The proprietor will pay $500 reward for a case he cannot cure. But this is not all. The aperient and antibillious properties of the preparation are scarcely secondary in importance preparation are scarcely secondary in importance to its tonic virtues. If there is an overflow of bile the secretion is soon brought within proper limits, and if the bileary organ is inert and torpid it is toned and regulated. The effect upon he disobarging organs is equally salutary, and in cases of constipation the eathertic action is just sufficient to produce the desired result gradually and without pain. The Bitters also promote healthy evaporation from the surface which is particularly desirable at this season when sudden applies of reav. unpleasant, weather are and Permeate the very Substance of the Lungs, causing them to throw off the acrid matter which collects in the Brenchial Tubes, and at the same time forms a soothing coating relieving the irritation which produces the cough.

The object to be obtained is to cleanse the organ of all impurities; to nourish and strengthen it when it has become impaired and enfecthed by disease; to renew and invigorate the circulation of the blood, and strengthen the nervous organization. The EXPECTORANT does this to an astonishing degree. It is nettire but mild and congental, imparting functional energy and natural strength. It affords Oxygen to vitalize the blood, and Nitrogen to assimilate the matter—

It equalizes the "nervous influence. producing quiet and composure. TO CONSUMPTIVES

It is involuable, as it immediately relieves the difficult breathing and harrassing cough which attends that disease. FOR ASTHMA

It is a specific—one does often relieving the dis trossing choking, and producing calm and pleasant repose. FOR CROUP No mother should ever be without a bottle of the EXPECTORANT in the house. We have numerous certificates of its having relieved, almost instantly, the little sufferer, when death appeared almost inevitable. MCTHERS BE ADVISED!

Keep it on Hand! This dread disease requires prompt action: assoon as the hears, hellow cough is heard, apply the remedy, and it is easily subdued;
